The South Downs National Park is one of the UK's most beautiful protected landscapes, stretching across Hampshire, West Sussex and East Sussex. Known for its rolling chalk hills, open countryside and picturesque villages, it offers a wonderful balance of natural beauty and outdoor lifestyle.

The park is home to miles of walking, cycling and bridle paths, including the famous South Downs Way which runs for around 100 miles from Winchester to Eastbourne. Residents and visitors can enjoy sweeping views across the countryside, abundant wildlife and a rich mix of woodland, farmland and historic downland.

Charming market towns, traditional pubs and historic landmarks are dotted throughout the area, creating a welcoming and characterful environment. The South Downs National Park is also recognised as an International Dark Sky Reserve, making it one of the best places in the country to enjoy clear night skies.

For those living nearby, the South Downs provides a fantastic backdrop for outdoor recreation, peaceful countryside walks and an enviable lifestyle close to nature, while still being within easy reach of coastal towns such as Worthing and Brighton.
