London Street, Worthing, BN11 4EL

Asking Price £289,995

Being sold with no ongoing chain, this charming two-bedroom terraced cottage is conveniently situated close to Worthing town centre, the railway station, bus services and a wide range of shops, restaurants and amenities.

The accommodation offers a generous 27ft lounge/dining room, creating an impressive open-plan living and entertaining space, complete with a feature brick fireplace and characterful detailing. To the rear, the double-aspect kitchen is fitted with a good range of units, space for appliances and direct access onto the garden.

Upstairs, there are two spacious double bedrooms, both benefiting from fitted wardrobes, together with a notably large bath/shower room featuring both a bath and separate corner shower cubicle. Outside, the west-facing courtyard garden offers a good degree of seclusion, with paved seating space, raised brick borders, rear access and an outside tap. Further benefits include double glazing, gas heating via a Worcester boiler and freehold tenure.

Worthing is a vibrant seaside town on the West Sussex coast, offering an appealing blend of coastal charm, town centre convenience and excellent transport links. The property is well placed for Worthing’s comprehensive shopping facilities, restaurants, cafés, leisure venues and everyday amenities, as well as the historic pier, seafront and promenade.

Worthing railway station provides regular services along the south coast and towards London, while local bus routes offer easy access across the town and surrounding areas including Goring-by-Sea, Broadwater, Tarring and Lancing.

The town is known for its relaxed coastal lifestyle, attractive architecture and growing cultural scene, with theatres, galleries, independent businesses and year-round events adding to its appeal. Green spaces such as Beach House Park and nearby access to the South Downs provide further outdoor options, making Worthing a consistently popular location for buyers seeking convenience, character and seaside living.
