Springfield Gardens, Worthing, BN13 2DF

Guide Price £325,000

This beautifully renovated one-bedroom bungalow is situated within a quiet courtyard development on the favoured Offington borders, offering immaculate accommodation, a private garden, garage and exciting future potential. Extensively improved throughout, the property now presents a superb, move-in ready home with a fresh, modern finish and a bright, welcoming feel. The accommodation includes a spacious hallway with excellent built-in storage, a generous 13ft lounge, stylish fitted kitchen, well-proportioned double bedroom and a contemporary bathroom. The kitchen provides direct access onto the private rear garden, creating a practical connection between the indoor and outdoor space. The bedroom overlooks the garden, while the lounge enjoys a pleasant outlook towards the front. Outside, the rear garden offers a manageable and private area to relax, with access leading towards the garage. The front garden is attractively arranged with paving and planting. A particularly appealing feature is that the seller has had plans drawn up for a loft conversion, offering excellent potential to further enhance the property, subject to the necessary planning consents. Further benefits include gas central heating, useful loft access, excellent storage, garage and freehold tenure.
