Salvington is a popular and well-established residential area of Worthing, known for its leafy surroundings, family-friendly feel and convenient access to local amenities. The area offers nearby shops, schools, parks and bus routes, making it a practical choice for day-to-day living.

Worthing town centre is within easy reach, providing a wider selection of shops, cafés, restaurants, leisure facilities, theatres and the historic pier. The seafront and promenade are also accessible, offering attractive coastal walks and outdoor space throughout the year.

For those who enjoy countryside, Salvington is well placed for access towards the South Downs National Park, with scenic walks, open green space and elevated views nearby. The area also provides convenient road links towards the A24 and A27, connecting to surrounding towns along the south coast. Combining suburban comfort, good amenities and access to both coast and countryside, Salvington remains a consistently sought-after Worthing location.
